Pastor Paul Arndt

May 17/18, 2008

Scripture for the Day: Selection of Psalms

The Kingdom of God

“The redemptive rule and reign of Jesus the Messiah that is breaking in, advancing, fighting against and freeing us from the kingdoms of this world.”

“more than Sunday” Reflections

In what ways has your prayer life reflected the following:

Wrong god. Wrong words. (idolatry)

Wrong god. Right words. (ignorance)

Right God. Wrong words. (indulgence)

Right God. Right words. (intimacy)

What is the difference between approaching the Psalms as a prayer book rather than a textbook?

Between this weekend (May 17/18) and Labor Day Weekend (August 30/31), consider reading through the book of Psalms.

15 weeks/150 Psalms

10 Psalms/week

Readings for the Week

During the week, slowly and deliberately page through the Psalms.

As you do, make note of those Psalms that help you

“answer God” / give voice to the particular season of your life.

Next Weekend's Message

“How Easy It Is To Forget”

Psalms 103
